

Course Cancellation Policy

Course Cancellation

The North Vancouver Arts Council reserves the right to cancel any class which does not meet a minimum enrollment. In the event of class cancellation, students will be notified by phone and/or email.

Refunds

If a class is cancelled by The North Vancouver Community Arts Council a full refund will be given.

Student cancellation of classes and workshops is permitted up to seven days prior to the start of the class, all refunds are subject to a $25 administration fee. Students cancelling less than seven days before the start of class will not receive a refund.

Late Registration

Provided that there is still space in a class, registration is accepted after the first class has already taken place. There will be no discount given to participants who register late.
